ORDER GRANTING, IN PART, MOTION FOR ABEYANCE

On December 6, 2001, Vitcom Corporation ("Vitcom") filed with the State Corporation Commission ("Commission") its Motion to Hold Application in Abeyance requesting that the above-captioned application be held in abeyance indefinitely. Vitcom also requests that the Commission reactivate its application when it has reevaluated its business plan and notified the Commission of its desire to move forward.

The Commission finds that Vitcom's motion should be granted, in part. We will not hold this proceeding in abeyance indefinitely. We will, instead, grant abeyance through January 31, 2002. At that time, we will either enter a new procedural order for this proceeding or dismiss the application.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

(1) Further proceedings in Case No. PUC010211 are hereby held in abeyance from the date of this Order through January 31, 2002.

(2) This case is continued for further orders of the Commission.
